REYNOLDS ASKS SUPPORT FOR JEWISH APPEAL

War Correspondent Cites Need for Money to 'Keep Dream Alive'

DESCRIBES COURAGE, FAITH AS ISRAEL'S REAL CAPITAL

By ED ZUMACH
(Mercury Staff Writer)

One of America's outstanding war and foreign correspondents last night urged 144 Pottstown Jews and their guests to support the 1952-53 United Jewish Appeal for $151,000,000 because through the Appeal they can "keep the young dream of a united Zion alive."

Quentin Reynolds told his audience in Congregation Mercy and Truth synagogue's Community center that though he is a "practicing Catholic, I think I have a much closer kinship with the Jews in Israel than you."

He said he was in Germany in 1932 when Hitler's legions began enforcing "the sentence of death" on German Jews. He said he saw the crematoriums and concentration camps to which the Jews were sent and heard their cry of despair.

He claimed that cry, "Where are our friends?" met "the long silence" from the United States and other countries to which the persecuted looked for help.

HE LEARNED more about Israel and its citizens, he said, during his eight visits to the state. He was there both in peace and during the war with five Arab nations.

"The important capital of Israel," Reynolds said, "is its people." (Continued on Page Sixteen)

Area Hunters Hope Governor Can Open Area for Small Game

A thin ray of hope touched Pottstown area hunters last night. Patiently they await a decision of Gov. John S. Fine, on the hunting ban in 51 counties.

The governor said late last night he planned to "canvass" the weather situation in the morning, before deciding whether any more counties should be released from the ban. There were no prospects of immediate action.

Fine permitted the first hunting of the year in 16 western Pennsylvania counties on Saturday.

Boy Badly Injured In Fall From Tree

A broken tree branch sent a 13-year-old Boyertown RD 1 tree climber to Pottstown hospital yesterday afternoon.

Edward Scavelli, son of Howard A. Scavelli, was pronounced in "good" condition in Pottstown hospital last night after suffering a deep cut under the right arm when a broken tree branch ripped through his shirt and penetrated the flesh.

Scavelli was climbing a tree in the back yard of his home when the branch gave way and he slipped. The accident occurred at 3 p. m.

Stanley M. Glanski, 35, of 15 Riverside avenue, Kenilworth, was treated for a cut of the tip of his right index finger at Memorial hospital dispensary.

He injured the finger on the hubcap of his auto while working at home.

ARMISTICE DAY NO DAY OF REST FOR MOST HERE

Business, Industry Plan To Keep Working; Banks Will Close

Most Pottstonians will keep their sleeves rolled high for Armistice Day tomorrow.

Business will buzz as on any other Tuesday and industry will grind away at jobs which include defense orders. But some will take a holiday.

Borough banks will be closed all day. The State Employment service, 362 King street, will observe Armistice Day and the State liquor store, 315 High street, will be closed.

Hill Fathers Spend Weekend With Sons, Attend Class, Game

One hundred fifty fathers of The Hill school pupils were guests of the school Friday until yesterday morning.

The fathers were given the opportunity to attend classes with their sons the past weekend and become acquainted with the facilities of the school.

The weekend program began Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock when masters of the school greeted fathers. At dinner that night, fathers ate in the dining hall with their sons.

Later Friday night, other parents arrived for individual conferences with school masters and to remain for the night as guests in their sons' rooms.

After breakfast Saturday, the fathers went to morning assembly. (Continued on Last Page)

South Coventry Democrats Go Riding Down 'Salt River' in 12-Foot Boat

Five South Coventry township Democrats took a boat ride Saturday afternoon.

But the 12-foot vessel was mounted atop a truck and it was all part of the Salt River parade sponsored by the township's Republicans in celebration of their Presidential election victory.

The dry land voyage over the mythical river of tears started for the losers at approximately 1 p. m. on Route 100 in front of Trunk's restaurant, Rucktown.

The procession, led by the boat in the truck and followed by a number of cars filled with Republicans, wound its way through the township's roads, and stopped long enough at various places to pick up members of the boat's crew.

FIRST TO BE WELCOMED aboard were Charles Kulp and Harry Symons. Kulp was dressed in ragged clothes and shoes and Planked by Sidney Pollock (left) and Leon J. Levitz, co-chairmen of the 1952-53 United Jewish Appeal campaign in Pottstown, Quentin Reynolds, famed foreign correspondent, told more than 140 guests at the campaign's kickoff dinner last night that he knows "every bartender in Tel Aviv." Israel, Reynolds, who has been to Israel eight times, mixed quips like that and numerous anecdotes in an address in which he appealed to his audience to "help keep that dream (of a united Zion) alive." ## THREE YOUTHS HURT WHEN CAR STRIKES POLE

State Trooper Says Auto Was Going Too Fast For Conditions

POTTSTOWN TEEN-AGER, 2 BIRDSBORO GIRLS TREATED

Three teen-agers, one from Pottstown and two from Birdsboro, were injured Saturday night, when the car in which they were riding struck a utility pole on Route 401 about one mile west of Route 100, in Chester county.

Taken to Memorial hospital by an unidentified motorist, where they were admitted for treatment were Donald Cook, 19, of 157 South Keim street, driver of the car; Nancy Steinmetz, 17, of 15 South Mill street, Birdsboro, and Elaine Adams, 16, of 321 West Second street, Birdsboro. Ronald Nichols, 928 Queen street, also a passenger, was uninjured.

Hospital authorities last night reported all three in "good condition" and said X-rays taken showed no fractures.

Injuries for Cook were listed as cuts of the scalp, puncture wound of the right knee and multiple abrasions of the body. Miss Steinmetz suffered cuts of the scalp, multiple cuts of both knees and elbows and abrasions of both arms, while Miss Adams was kept overnight for X-rays of the chest.

According to Cook, the accident occurred at approximately 7:30 p. m. as the two couples were returning to Pottstown following a ride. He said he hit a curve on the road which was "sharper than I thought."

The car ran off the road and struck the utility pole, shearing it at the base. State Trooper John J. Stafford, of the Coates- (Continued on Page Nine)

Area Motorist Dozes; Car Shears Utility Pole Near Sanaloga

A Pottstown RD 1 motorist who fell asleep at the wheel and struck a utility pole caused a failure of electric power for more than an hour in a section just north of Pottstown, along Keim road, Lower Pottsgrove township early Saturday morning.

William J. McKee said he was traveling north on Keim road when he must have fallen asleep. He said he felt a bump and found himself in a field on the west side of the road. His car had struck a utility pole, shearing it at the base.

The entire left front of McKee's convertible coupe was damaged, but the driver escaped uninjured.

Two other cars were slightly damaged in another mishap Friday night along Route 422 at Pleasant (Continued on Page Sixteen)

Pottstown RD 2 Man Is Thrown Out of Auto; Was Home on Pass

A 24-year-old Pottstown RD 2 soldier, home on a week-end pass from Camp Kilmer, N. J., was killed Saturday morning when he was thrown from his automobile as it overturned on the Pennsylvania Turnpike, five miles west of the Downingtown interchange in Chester county.

This brought to seven the number of Pottstown area residents killed in automobile accidents within 16 days.

The body of Pfc. David R. Monjar was found lying on the highway near his automobile by two unidentified truckdrivers at approximately 7:40 a. m. The two men immediately notified the State police Turnpike patrol.

Creston Shoemaker, Chester county coroner, who came to the scene of the mishap, said the soldier died from a fractured skull and internal injuries. The body was released to a funeral home in Downingtown. State Trooper John Nodich, of the Turnpike detail investigating the accident, said Monjar apparently was travelling alone on the eastbound lane, when in trying to pass another car, his vehicle ran off the highway onto the medial strip.

The soldier's car then swerved to the right, across the eastbound lane and overturned several times before being halted by the guard rail. Nodich said the 1951 sedan was completely demolished and estimated the damage at $1500.

The State trooper ascertained Monjar's identity through cards found in the latter's wallet.

Clemmy Eleanor Neale, the dead soldier's sister, said she last saw her brother at approximately 11:30 p. m. Friday, when he stopped with a date at their home, Emerald Farms, Creek road, Coventryville.

SHE SAID he had stopped while enroute from Philadelphia, where the couple had attended a dance, to Lancaster, the girl's home.

"He must have been on his way home from Lancaster when the accident happened," she said. Monjar, who was due for discharge from the Army Jan. 11 on his 25th birthday, exactly two years from the date on which he entered the service, was attached to the Signal corps at the New Jersey military installation. His sister said he spent most of his weekends at home.

Born in New York City, he was a son of Hugh B. and Josephine (Tait) Monjar. He had lived at his last address since the family moved into this area five years ago.

Following his graduation from the Haverford school, Haverford, in 1948, Monjar attended Ursinus college for 2 1/2 (Continued on Page Nine)

Uwchlan Man Dies Of Polio After Short Illness, at Age of 29

B. James Fell, 29, of Uwchlan township, died at 2:55 o'clock Friday afternoon in Chester county hospital of interior bulbar poliomyelitis.

He is the seventh polio fatality reported this year by hospital authorities.

Fell had been in an iron lung in the hospital's contagion ward and had special "round-the-clock" nursing since his admission the past Oct. 29.

His associates at the Texas Eastern Transmission company, where he was a civil engineer for the past five years, contributed blood during the last week of his illness.

They also arranged for Mrs. Fell's sister in Cleveland, to fly to Philadelphia early the past week.

The son of William and Mary (McGonigal) Fell, the engineer was born in Philadelphia and attended schools there. After graduation from Norwich college, Norwich, Conn., he moved to Uwchlan (Continued on Last Page)

Meeting Delayed 1/2 Hour For Salt River Parade

Pottstown school board will meet a half-hour later than usual tonight.

School business will wait until 8:30 because the Republican members of the board do not want to miss the Salt River parade to be staged on High street by the borough's Republicans.

Three of the Democrats are school directors. They are Victor J. Roberts, Earl J. Reidenouer and H. Clifford Creswell.

Borough council's meeting time also will be delayed tonight too. Instead of starting at 7:30 o'clock, the meeting will begin at 8:30 o'clock.

Philip Murray, CIO President, Dies Of Heart Attack; Planned Retirement

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9 (AP)—Philip Murray, president of the CIO and one of the Big Three of American union labor, died early today of a heart attack suffered in his sleep.

A physician pronounced the 66-year-old one-time Scottish immigrant had died at 7:05 a. m. (10:05 a. m. Pottstown time) 20 minutes after Mrs. Murray found her husband sprawled on the floor beside their bed in the fashionable Mark Hopkins hotel atop San Francisco's Nob hill.

Besides the widow, he is survived by an adopted son, Joe, of New York.

Ironically, only the past Tuesday—election day—Murray had to deny a widely current rumor that he had died.

Although he had been in poor health for the past three or four years and recently was hospitalized for an abdominal ailment, the San Francisco coronor's office, which performed an autopsy, said there was no history of a heart ailment.

Only last night Murray addressed an 11-state regional conference of the United Steel Workers of America, of which he also was president, and was honored guest at a banquet.

A YEAR AGO he had told CIO vice presidents he expected to retire from the CIO presidency in 1952. He asked them to decide on his successor in the job he had held since John L. Lewis bowed out in 1940.

Murray's father was a miner and a local union official in Blantyre, Scotland.

The discontented young Murray quit his job as a 30-cent-a-day mine helper, at the age of 16, and came to America in 1902. He was naturalized in 1911, and a year later became a member of the international board of the United Mine Workers. When John Lewis became the UMW president in 1920, Murray was his vice president.

In 1940, Murray succeeded Lewis as president of the Powerful CIO. Both supported the Stevenson ticket in the past Tuesday's election.

Fierce Fighting Erupts After Snow, Lull Herald Start of 3d Korea Winter

SEOUL, Korea, Monday, Nov. 10 (AP)—Thirteen hundred North Koreans drove Allies off two hills at the eastern end of the war front last night and early today, but US Eighth army troops recaptured one in 15 minutes and were fighting on the crest for the other at dawn.

The Reds attacked in night-long waves of up to 100 men, supported by thunderous artillery and mortar barrages that totaled about 4000 rounds during the night.

The fighting on the hills, south of the east coast port of Kosong, was bloody and hand-to-hand, the Eighth army reported.

Kosong is about 45 miles north of the 38th parallel. The Red blow followed a quiet snowy Sunday when the war slackened to its quietest level in more than a month.

Only minor probes and patrols were reported along the freezing 155-mile front yesterday.

LODGE PICKED AS LIAISON MAN BY EISENHOWER

Detroit Banker Selected By GOP as Budget Bureau Emissary

AUGUSTA, Ga., Nov. 9 (AP)—President-elect Dwight D. Eisenhower today named GOP Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts as his pre-inauguration representative in the Defense and State, departments and other Federal agencies.

Eisenhower notified President Truman that Lodge will serve as his liaison man in all Federal agencies, except the Budget bureau. As his representative in the Budget bureau Eisenhower appointed Joseph M. Dodge, Detroit banker.

Eisenhower wired the President: "With further reference to your several messages I am designating Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., of Massachusetts, to serve as my personal liaison with those departments and agencies of government, other than the Bureau of the Budget, where such liaison may prove useful in facilitating the transfer of public business from the old to the new administration."

Lodge, defeated for re-election the past Tuesday, managed Eisenhower's pre-convention campaign and was chairman of the General's campaign advisory committee during the campaign.

Dodge in addition to being president of the Detroit bank is a director of the Chrysler corporation, the Standard Accident Insurance company, the Planet Insurance company, and a trustee of the Equitable Life Insurance company of Iowa.

Lodge, defeated for re-election the past Tuesday, managed Eisenhower's pre-convention campaign and was chairman of the General's campaign advisory committee during the campaign.

First indications were good for the former Nazis and bad for the government on the basis of the early returns.

Ex-Germ. Wilhelm Schepmann, last chief of staff of Hitler's bulging storm troopers (SA), won a seat on the county council of the rural community of Gijforn in Lower Saxony and was also expected to win a contest for city councilman.

The voting was in the British zone states of North Rhine-Westphalia, Rhineland-Palatinate, and Lower Saxony to pick 96,000 mayors, city councilmen, and district legislators. About 15 million persons were eligible to vote.

A Socialist candidate also trounced a candidate backed by all three government coalition parties in election of a Federal parliament member from the Lower Saxony city of Hannover. The special election was held to fill a seat left vacant by the death of Socialist leader Kurt Schumacher.

Schepmann was only one of many former Nazis running for office in Lower Saxony. Allied officials and anti-Nazi Germans carefully watched the election, fearful of a political comeback by Hitler's one-time supporters.

UN Faces Biggest Week; Russian Answer on Korea Eagerly Awaited

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Nov. 9 (AP)—The U N General Assembly moved into its busiest week of the session today, spurred by big three conferences and hope for a Russian clue on whether the Korean war can be halted.

The Assembly was nearly-half way through its scheduled session, with many questions about the Korean truce still unanswered. British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, who arrived Saturday, arranged separate meetings with Dean Acheson, U S Secretary of State, and Robert Schuman, French foreign minister. Acheson and Schuman began the western Big Three talks yesterday.

British source said it was likely a roundtable big three meeting would be held later in the week. Such a meeting may be made a positive necessity by the Korean truce statement promised Monday morning in the Assembly political committee by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky.

TV or Not TV? That Is the Question Asked By Britons as Coronation Dale Approaches

LONDON, Nov. 9 (AP)—Is a ring-side view of an archbishop appointing a Queen's hands, forehead and breast a fit sight for TV-viewers? This sort of question has plunged a Britain, preparing to celebrate the coronation of Queen Elizabeth II, into one of the loudest controversies in years.

The coronation committee has banned TV cameras during the solemn service next June 2. There are many who complain that this is wrong. At times the issue has split on party lines with Laborites demanding a full electronic view of the young queen being crowned in Westminster Abbey which will seat 7000 bigwigs, leaving most of the nation outside.

Prime Minister Churchill says the telecast row is not a Government issue. He admits his cabinet gave advice to the coronation authorities who will make the final decision. "There will be no cloacae," he said, because "the coronation is not a theatrical piece" but "we hope the world can watch."

When the ban was announced, protest letters flowed into newspaper offices. Many papers carried editorials demanding the ban be lifted. And in the House of Commons angry Laborites tried to get Churchill to say the Government would intervene.

The Archbishop of Canterbury, Dr. Geoffrey Fisher, the man who does the actual anointing and crowning, has denied he demanded the ban.

There is this: The 1000-year old instructions on the ceremony descended from Saxon tribal gatherings say the ritual is to be carried out "in the sight of all the people." Modern TV fans take that instruction literally and are demanding the BBC give them their money's worth.

SOUTH AFRICAN RACE RIOTS TAKE HIGH DEATH TOLL

Nun Among Those Killed As Police Open Fire On 'Illegal' Crowd

DURBAN, South Africa, Nov. 9 (AP)—Gun-wielding South African police clashed today with rioting Negroes in a native settlement in suburban East London. The rioting and gunfire took a death toll of at least ten persons, one of them a White Catholic nun.

A second white victim was believed to be a doctor called to the Negro quarter to attend a confinement case.

The nun was killed in the rioting which broke out as police went in to disperse an illegal meeting. First reports said that she was seized in her car and killed and that the car then was set afire with the nun's body inside.

Police said they had opened fire after a crowd of Negroes around the meeting place stoned them and charged.

NO POLICE casualties were reported.

It was the second day of police action against restive natives in this race-divided nation. Fourteen Africans were killed and 39 wounded yesterday when police dispelled rioters at Kimberley, South African diamond center.

Police acted today to break up native meetings banned for 30 days under government regulations. The Africans heavily stoned the police, who then opened fire. No police casualties were reported.

In Port Elizabeth, the next big port south of here, citizens braced for a Negro protest strike due to begin at daybreak tomorrow. Defense units were alerted and white residents formed "law and order patrols" to stem possible violence.

The 24-hour strike has been called by the African National congress, the spearhead of resistance against racial laws of the national government headed by Prime Minister Daniel Malan.

Israelis Mourn Death of Weizmann, 'Father' of Country, First President

REHOVOT, Israel, Nov. 9 (AP)—Dr. Shaim Weizmann, first President of Israel and renowned chemist who died of a heart attack early this morning, will be buried on his estate here Tuesday afternoon.

Announcement of the death of the 77-year-old "Father of Israel" after a prolonged illness, plunged this newly-born desert nation into deepest mourning. All places of entertainment were closed and will stop Tuesday, the day of the State funeral.

Within hours after the President's passing, Israeli soldiers, in full battle dress and carrying rifles, lined the roadway leading to the Weizmann mansion where workmen began constructing a canopied catafalque in front of the residence.

THERE THE BODY will rest while grieving Israelis, the great and the humble, file past to pay their respects to the man who pioneered in the colonization and economic development of modern Palestine.

Special trains were scheduled to bring the sorrowing public to this small coastal plains town 10 miles from Tel Aviv.

Dr. Weizmann became seriously ill about the time he was re-elected president of Israel in November, 1951, and had been bedridden since. He suffered one heart attack at 4:30 a. m. Mrs. Weizmann and two doctors were with him when he died at 5:55 a. m.

Trinity Reformed Installs Elders, Deacons and Trustees

Ceremony Preceded by Communion Service, Breakfast for Over 100

J. Robert Von Drach and Kline M. Geyer were installed yesterday as elders of the Trinity Reformed church consistory, governing body of the church.

At the installation ceremony conducted by the Rev. John B. Frantz, pastor, Warren F. Delong, Clarence C. Hilborn and Richard C. Dutcher assumed office as deacons.

Two other men, William H. Yohn and George L. Ifughes, were installed as trustees.

All were elected recently to succeed themselves, except Dutcher, who replaces Dr. J. Ross Schmidt, Pottstown physician.

In his sermon titled "Sound the Trumpets and Roll the Drums," the Rev. Frantz challenged the congregation to consider their "other vocation."

"Much of the failure of the Christian church today," he asserted, "is caused by the failure of the laity to assume responsibility for their church, their unwillingness to become even 'parttime Christians'."

WHEN The average church member realizes, he continued, "that every lay member, man or woman, is really a minister of Christ, we could have something like a revolution in a very short time."

Earlier yesterday, more than 100 men and boys attended a communion service and breakfast, with the Rev. A. Burtis Hallock, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, as guest speaker.

General Chairman Oliver L. Christman was assisted by Joseph

WCTU Members Set Meeting Thursday At Trinity Church

"We Build for Total Abstinence Through the Family" titles the theme of the WCTU roll call meeting at 2 p. m. Thursday in Trinity Evangelical Congregational church.

Members will hear a discussion, "My Brother with Me," by the Rev. Donald Floyd, host pastor. Mrs. Donald Floyd will lead the devotional.

Featured singer on the program will be Mary Schultz, WCTU worker from Allentown, and musical selections will be presented by members of the host church.

Mrs. W. F. Maloney will review several chapters of the group's study book, Audrey Hearn's "Alcoholism or Abstinence," and Mrs. Roy Kinckiner will read news items from the WCTU organ "Signal."

Members of the Loyal Temperance Legion will entertain the group with a playlet entitled "Disillusioned," and delegates to the Jonkintown conference last week will report on the convention.

Squares for the WCTU's second afghan will be collected.

Dr. Krouse Christens Own First Grandchild

His first grandchild was baptized Saturday by the Rev. Luther A. Krouse, pastor of Emmanuel Lutheran church, in his son's pastorate, St. Paul's Lutheran church of Summit Hill.

Christened David Alan, the child is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. L. Samuel Krouse.

Three other children baptized yesterday in Emmanuel church were: Laurel Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Miller, Mary Kay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Greis, and Dean Daryl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Eltz.

Willing Workers Class Plans Christmas Party

Members of Pine Swamp church's Willing Workers class planned a Dec. 4 Christmas party, to be held in the home of Erma Loomis.

Hostess for the gathering was Nora James, Elverson RD 4, and Dorothy Bixler read the devotions. Prayer leader was Erma Wheeler.

Members attending were: Myrtle Handwork, Myrtle Styer, Virginia Bitler, Roxie Heitzler, Mary Piersol and Erma Loomis.

Jessie McCord, Helen Houck, Adeline Houck and two visitors, Erma Butler and Hilda Heitzler.

Baltzell Pastor Tells Optimists Boys Need Adult's Helping Hand

"Every boy is born with a potential instinct to do good or bad, depending largely upon his environment, training and associates," the Rev. John L. Smoker, pastor of Baltzell Evangelical United Brethren church, told 26 Optimist club members and 35 members of his congregation last night.

An Optimist himself, the Rev. Smoker spoke at the vesper service in his church on the theme of Optimist week, "Every Boy Needs a Man's Helping Hand."

Optimist week began yesterday. The Pottstown Optimists visit the Baltzell church annually as that week begins.

The minister said each of the 14,000 boys in this country between 5 and 9 and thus 11-500,000 between 10 and 14 has three strikes against him in his attempt to do good.

The first strike is a sense of insecurity. The second is the breakdown in the moral and spiritual stability of the American home, and the third strike is the present-day crime wave.

Every boy has a "right to the helping hand of American men," he said, then urged his male listeners to be ready always with such a helping hand, because:

"Not every boy has a wise and forgiving father to return to as did the Prodigal, and not every boy has a mother who will dedicate her son to the Lord for a lifetime as did Samuel."

The church's senior choir sang "Come, Ye Disconsolate" at the service.

Officers Re-Elected By Sunday School at Emmanuel Lutheran

Emmanuel Lutheran Sunday school yesterday unanimously re-elected its entire slate of nominees for 1953, officers.

Re-elected general superintendent of the school was Irvin W. Riegner, who begins his 65th year as a Sunday school officer.

According to the Rev. Dr. Luther A. Krouse, pastor, Emmanuel church has the fifth largest Lutheran Sunday school in Pennsylvania, and 651 members voted in yesterday's elections.

Two assistant superintendents elected were Leonard Hatfield and J. Harold Yocom. H. Henry Burdian was chosen recording secretary, and his assistant-elect is Norman Yocom.

SUPERINTENDENTS FOR 1953 include: Mrs. A. W. Koppenhaver, nursery; Mrs. Harry D. Purnell, beginners; Mary A. Mertz, primary; Woodrow Bickel, junior; George Grebe, intermediate; Mrs. C. Smith Burdian, senior, and Edna Shinehouse, adult.

Hiram B. Burdian was returned to the office of attendance secretary; A. W. Koppenhaver, literature secretary; Alton Peterman, chorister secretary; and Raymond Smale, orchestra director.

Konya, Turkey, known as Iconium in the days of St. Paul, now has a population of more than 60,000, says the National Geographic Society.

Rug-Cutting Will Be Done for Real By Members of Trinity EC Church

Many male members of Trinity Evangelical Congregational church have not "cut a rug," as the teenagers used to say, for many a year, but they will be doing just that Thursday night.

The cutting will not be at a church dance or a party sponsored by one of the church's organizations and the men will take the saying literally.

The Rev. Donald T. Floyd, church pastor, has asked the men to turn out at 7:30 p. m. that day to help him cut up an old carpet so the usable sections of it may be used as runners in the church.

Scout Leader Joseph Bobb Has Assumed Leadership of Trinity Reformed Church's Boy Scout Troop 6

Richard Dutcher, district executive for the Boy Scouts' Continental district, will be in charge at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday when parents of boys 8 to 11 gather in the church for the final organization meeting of the church's new Cub Scout pack. Dutcher is hoping for a good turnout.

Dec. 1 is a big date for teachers, officers, board members and class officers of Trinity's Sunday school. It's the day of the school's annual meeting. A free dinner will be served at 6:30 p. m. at the Sanatoga Grange hall.

Rector Pleased The Rev. George A. Lineker, Rector of Christ Episcopal, Is Enthused over the Attendance at the Koffee Klatches in the Parish House after the 11 a. m. Service Sunday

To draw even more parishioners to the affairs, tea has been added to the menu.

Flowers on the altar yesterday were donated by Harry Kupp in memory of Clarence Kupp and his mother, Olivia. Ushers yesterday were Francis Donohue, Arnold Watson and Webster Scholt.

Old Clothes Needed The Lutheran World Relief is looking for those old clothes that are cached away in your attic. That's why the Rev. Edward S. Horn, pastor of St. James Lutheran church, has asked members of his congregation to visit their attics and bring forth some of their families outgrown garments.

The clothing will help make the Relief's Thanksgiving drive a success. The garments should be taken to the church by Nov. 23 for shipment overseas.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Overholtzer and Nancy Overholtzer contributed the flowers which decorated the St. James altar yesterday. The flowers were in memory of the Overholtzers' loved ones.

For truth itself has not the privilege to be spoken at all times and in all sorts.—Michael de Montaigne.

Some Action at Last

At long last, and after considerably prodding from all walks of life, Pottstown borough council's police committee finally has decided to recommend some deterrents to automobile speeding on West High street—the mile of murder.

The police committee's recommendations are scheduled to go before borough council this week. It is hoped they will be passed speedily.

First, the committee recommended a "temporary" speed trap on West High street. Next, it asked for a traffic light at High and Berks street, the middle portion of the "race-track."

It took a couple of deaths and sharp criticism leveled at borough officials to eke these two most necessary items out of the apathetic councilmen. There are many PROGRESSIVE and safety-minded councilmen on the floor of council, so it's hoped these measures will be passed fast!

There seemed to be great reluctance among some of the borough officials to consider speed traps on the suicide stretch.

Chairman Earl Strange said he didn't favor a speed trap because in time "it would be ignored by most motorists."

Chief of Police James Laughhead reported it would take four men to operate the trap, indicating either that (1) such operation was too much trouble for the police department or (2) the department didn't have the manpower to operate it.

There are many answers to these objections. Councilman Strange knows that laws only will be enforced as long as police are told to enforce them. He knows if the vacillating attitude continues in the police department, no laws will be enforced. He knows it is entirely up to the police department to enforce laws . . . and he is responsible for such enforcement.

Councilman Strange knows no motorist will ignore the speed laws if the road is patrolled, and if FINES ARE MADE TO STICK.

There can be no "fixing" of tickets, as there were on parking violation tickets until the system was changed at borough hall. There can be no quashing of charges, as some police declared was done after they arrested law violators.

The effectiveness of the speed trap will depend entirely on whether the LAW IS TO BE ENFORCED without favoritism, without fear. Police will do their duty if they know they will get backing from their superiors.

Let those who wear the honor of public office ever remember that a favor granted to one constituent today may very likely result in the death of another constituent tomorrow.

It must also be made inescapably clear to every driver that the ownership of a car is a privilege that is granted under license and may be exercised only in compliance with specific legal conditions that are established for the protection of everyone.

As for objections that not enough police are available to patrol the road properly, these can be overcome by proper dispersal of the present manpower.

Even if extra men had to be hired, the cost would be worth it. If just one life were saved, the extra expenditure would not be lost.

Many a Pottstonian will praise the stand of Councilman Charles S. Grubbe, who emphatically told police committee members operation of a speed trap was the solution.

It's refreshing to hear a borough official take a positive stand instead of going along with a nifty-pammy attitude.

One of the biggest laughs in recent years was the erection of the jelly fish signs at Pottstown's boundaries.

These Casper Milquetoasts warnings were: "Please obey our laws! We don't want to pinch you!"

Even the best behaved boy sometimes slips and his father will admit a trip to the woodshed helps more than a wagging finger!

If stern measures are required to STOP THE SLAUGHTER on West High street, many a Pottstonian will back them. If it's a speedtrap that's needed, let's have it.

Our suggestion here was that proper patrols by police could stop the speeding. Evidently, police weren't told to patrol the beat night and day, so the police heads didn't think much of the suggestion.

So let's put in speed traps and stop the killings!

READERS SAY:

Cause of Delinquency Laid to Parents

Parents Blamed

To the Editor: If parents cannot control their children, I wonder how they expect them to obey anyone else? It is not juvenile delinquency. It is parental delinquency.

In my mind the lack of co-operation between home, church, and school is a cause of delinquency.

If the church and school would encourage children to remain home at night and get a good night's rest instead of planning all sorts of programs and amusements there might be less delinquency.

Again the parents have the first authority of their children and are not compelled to send their children out at night, but it is difficult to keep them home when church and school do not co-operate with the home.

If I remember correctly, the school law says children are to be in school six hours of the day and the rest of the day to be in the care of their parents.

According to scripture, the Bible is to be taught in church and other activities to be taken care of by the parents.

The name and complete address of the author must accompany every contribution but on request will not be published. Letters not exceeding 250 words will receive preference.

If we, as parents, would examine ourselves, I think we would find the cause of delinquency is with ourselves and not the authorities.

If America is ever to be saved from moral destruction and spiritual ruin, it will not come by the passing of resolutions and the setting up of commissions and committees treating only the symptoms.

We must realize a return to the Bible standard of Christian homes and morality is the only solution.

The Christian home, finally, becomes the only hope of our nation, and its hope does not lie in greater armies and more complete defenses or any other method the government may institute, but comes right down to the root of spiritual revival within the hearts of God's people and within the Christian home.

Wants Voting Machines

To the Editor: I have but one question in mind on this the day after the Presidential election:

Have electric voting machines ever been proposed for Pottstown?
As a comparatively new resident of the borough, I really was amazed when I walked into the polling place in our ward and saw not modern voting equipment, but antique facilities the like of which I thought would be found only in a tiny town of 4 voters like Sharon, N. H.

I realize the streets in the borough almost are beyond repair due to the backwardness of a majority of Pottstonians, but I did not believe that same failure to keep up to date would be discovered in the polling places.

Imagine, all the procedure you must go through to cast a vote in the borough when in municipalities with sense one only has to sign one's name and proceed immediately to cast one's vote by pulling a lever!

Election returns would be speeded, too, if voting machines were used. Where it requires hours to sort and tabulate paper ballots, only a glance at an electric computer is necessary when the machines are used.

If machines never have been proposed for the borough, why haven't they been?

COMMUNISM, MOSLEMS Pose Problems For US

By JOHN FISHER

TWO OVERSHADOWING foreign policy problems, Communism and Moslem nationalism, confront the new selected administration, as it starts a fresh approach in direction of the country and in leadership in global affairs.

The first problem is more serious. Bound up in our relations with Stalin are the issues of peace and war. Two immediate concerns are Communist infiltration and influence at home and an early, honorable end to the steady drip, drip, drip of American blood in Korea.

Of course, the final answer will be made in Moscow. But the journey there may lie by way of Korea or India. In the latter case the newly elected President may ask Premier Nehru to invite both him and Mao Tse-tung for a face-to-face meeting in the neutral capital of New Delhi to see if they can work out an acceptable settlement.

By dealing directly with the head of Red China, we might precipitate another Tito incident. For years, China—every China—has had cause to mistrust and fear Russia—Czarist Russia or Communist Russia.

MAO IS TOO smart not to recognize that Stalin merely wants to exploit China for his own advantage. Should the shrewd Chinese leader think he might gain by dickering directly with Uncle Sam, he might seize the opportunity.

In support of this theory is the knowledge that most Red satellites in Europe find Moscow's yoke heavy. Each would like to run his own Communist country and reap rewards for his Communist boss if he could do so. But the big power won't allow such independence.

The second giant problem in foreign policy is how best to deal with Moslem nationalism, which in Persia is so explosive and elsewhere presents a continuous hazard to world peace. Until North Africa and the Middle East are brought back to better relations with Europe and the United States there can be no stability.

Nationalism involves the pride of reawakening Arab lands, rejection of colonialism, suspicion of foreigners, Moslem religious fanaticism and bitter economic struggle between the very wealthy and the miserably poor. Its fires burn in Morocco, Algeria, Tunisia, Egypt, the Near East and beyond.

MOSLEM NATIONALISM is not primarily Communist. The pious followers of the Prophet, like other believers, hate godless communism. But as abject poverty is fertile ground for Marxist agitation, the Reds exploit nationalism in raising hob.

Several weeks ago Red agents fomented a political strike in the Arab district of Tunis. The police attempted to maintain order and were jumped by the mob. The Communists claim that the government has arrested several thousand "patriots" and has sentenced two to death.

Anti-French demonstrations in Algeria also caused the police to fire on rioters. But the violence was not considered sufficient by Red leaders. Immediately afterward they went into a huddle and decided they would create more trouble if they "embraced diverse national parties and organizations" and called themselves the "Algerian Front for Defense of Freedom."

The Communists are trying to hamstring the efforts of General Mohammed Naquib, new strong man of Egypt, to bring about long-demanded reforms in that poverty-stricken desert. Their opposition clearly proves what fakery they are. They pretend to want to alleviate the distress of the poor yet they attempt to block the only true friend the down-trodden felahen have had for years.

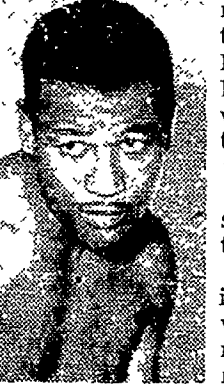

In no nation on earth is the lot of the average person more pitiful. There is no middle class. The rich live in mansions more swanky than those of an American millionaire or a Hollywood star.

The Voice of Broadway

By DOROTHY KILGALLEN

Broadway Chatter

MISS MIDNIGHT'S NOTEBOOK—Sugar Ray Robinson, who has thrilled many a Broadwayite with his grace in the ring, entered the equally dangerous world of show business Friday night when he put on makeup and dared the spotlight of the French Casino—the French Casino being what has happened to Billy Rose's Diamond Horseshoe.

Ray Robinson

He danced, he sang a little, he talked a lot. He proved that he is a darling fellow, well-loved by the most prominent members of the prize ring, the press, and the theatrical profession; that he is handsome and has beautiful shoulders; and that his tailor is a man of skill, imagination, and courage.

He also proved beyond doubt or argument that nobody—not even a prize-fighter with incomparable teeth—should make speeches about the United Nations charter while the band plays "I'll See You in My Dreams" and semi-naked French girls wait in the wings to come out waving the flags of assorted countries.

There is something unutterably embarrassing about lofty sentiment mixed with night club nudity, and the combination of Ray's obviously sincere but quite obscure pitch for the UN and the blatant tawdriness of the babes who came on to bolster his appeal had the unreal and disturbing quality of the Archbishop of Canterbury standing on the stage of a burlesque theatre denouncing materialism while Georgia Sothern did bumps.

I don't know who Sugar Ray's manager it, but I wish he had a better one.

I WISH HE HAD opened at the Persion Room of the Plaza, or the Wedgewood Room of the Waldorf, or the Copacabana, in an atmosphere of chic befitting his elegance as a champion. I wish his act had been staged by somebody like Robert Alton. I wish his stooge, with those hoary Apollo jokes, had been exiled to that Never-Never land where bad Amos 'n' Andy scripts are written. I wish he had been given the wisdom to see that he is attractive when he just stands there and talks, charming when he dances, engaging when he sings, but boring and bewildering when he preaches. I wish he could have made the act short and smart and clean, without having to introduce tired sopranos and faltering ballerinas and chorines in dirty costumes.

Maybe when Sugar Ray has learned about show business the hard way—and you can do it the hard way even at $15,000 a week—he will know what I mean. He will discover that Town Hall is a place for lectures, and a cellar night club is a place for dancing, and very few customers at ringside tables are sober enough or sober enough to evaluate the relationship between spangled show-girls and Andrei Vishinsky.

Then, I hope, he will come on fast with his smile and his flashy suit and his cute tap steps, and he will go off with "Ballin' the Jack."

I AWAIT THE OPENING of the new Danny Kaye film, "Hans Christian Andersen, with a mixture of anticipation and trepidation. It has ingredients I like—Technicolor, ballet, music, fantasy—so I should be the number one pushover in the first New York audience. But on the other, less cheerful, hand, I have heard one of the songs from the score, and it fills me with foreboding. It was written by Frank Loesser—a Tin Pan Alley hero of mine—and it is the one that repeats "No two people have ever been so in love, been so in love, been so in love" until you are ready to surrender happily to the men in the white jackets. It contains the additional assurance that "No two people have ever been so in love as my macaroon and I." (Macaroon!)

The Worry Clinic

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CLAUDE B., 38, is a high school principal.

"Dr. Crane, a few years ago you addressed our state teachers convention in Iowa," he reminded me during a recent visit to my office.

"You vigorously indicted the colleges for being out of touch with the real problems of life which the students are compelled to face immediately after graduation."

"Some of those in our audience were very angry at you because you also said the AVERAGE college professor is a 'tombstone duster' or 'epitaph polisher', with his eyes focussed too much on the past."

"You advocated a housecleaning in education. Well, you probably noticed how our military leaders bore out your indictment during World War II."

"And the Commission on Education of the Association of American Colleges, finally made a report advocating most of the things your newspaper column had championed."

"This commission's report started out by urging that we scrap complicated admission procedures, requiring the completion of certain secondary courses."

"IT URGED the elimination of courses included solely for their so-called 'disciplinary value.'"

"It indicted the selection of professors on the basis of their research in preference to proved teaching ability."

"Don't you think your hammering away at these evils by means of your newspaper column, has been instrumental in producing these wholesome changes?"

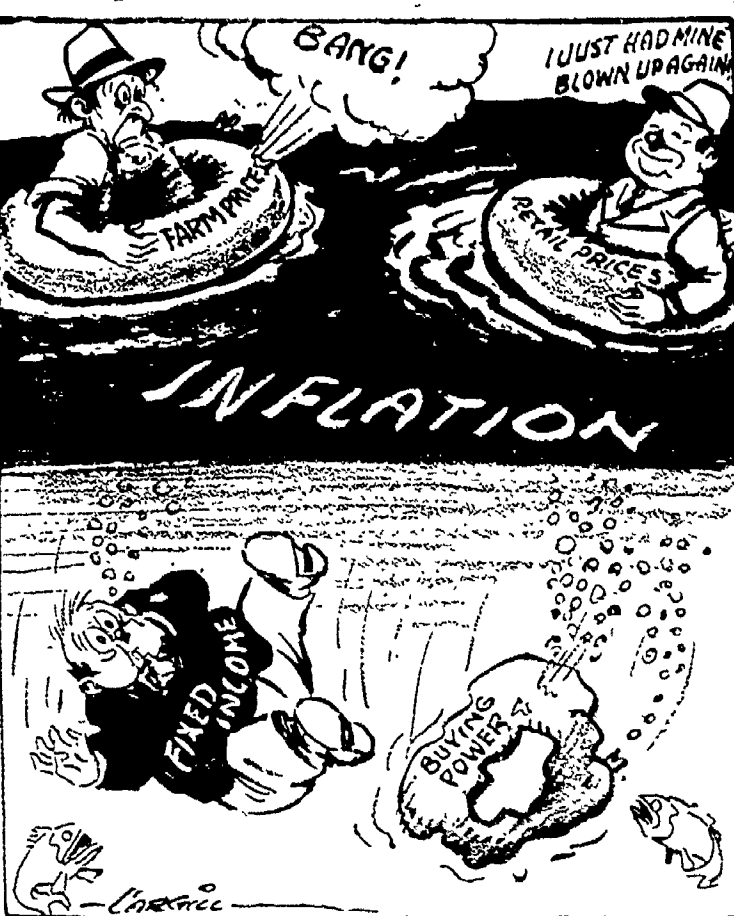

If we didn't have newspapers with courageous editors, not only would the entrenched status quo have prevented such educational changes as those cited by this high school principal.

But some of our churches would go to seed and even become wealthy political machines, instead of agencies for moral instruction and unselfishness.

Our government would quickly become an entrenched oligarchy, if not an absolute dictatorship.

When freedom of the press is infringed upon, the forces of evil soon get in the saddle. Darkness and silence are the agents of the crook and rapist, as well as the dictator.

An Appeal for Help... From Deserving Family...

★ TODAY a pathetic letter. A letter from a family of four that needs your help. Even with abundance around us, here is a family that has tough going, because of illness, accident and whatnot. Read the letter: "Perhaps I am being presumptuous, but I am at my wits end and must do something. First my story—My wife was in a hospital from January to September. In June I lost my job and not being able to get one, I finally lost everything. The latter part of July, I had to sell my furniture, being a month behind in rent, electric turned off and bills piled up. I put the children in a home. I got a job July 30 and am still working—not much pay but a job . . .

"My wife got out of the hospital September 19 so I got a housekeeping room (sleep, cook and eat in one room). October 7 I got the children from the home and not being able to get a furnished apartment with two bedrooms that would accept children, I took a sleeping room next to ours for them. Total rent $17 weekly or $75 per month . . .

★ WITH FOUR of us living in two rooms it is not good. Not good for the children to sleep together (boy nine—girl eight) not good for my wife as things are so congested and get on her nerves too often and with her previous illness it is a serious condition. Now why tell you all this? Because I read your column every day, as I believe 90 percent of Pottstown does and I have read and seen of the good deeds you do and can do with a word in your column. I advertised in The Mercury for an apartment, but to no avail. It is almost impossible to get a furnished apartment for us, so I can only see one recourse (maybe). If you could mention our plight in your column and say something about us getting some furniture that folks may have no further use for we could get an unfurnished apartment or house and live a normal and proper life. We do not have any furniture at all . . .

"If there is no change in our way of living in the very near future—a furnished apartment large enough, or some way to get furniture so we can get an unfurnished apartment or a house. I know that something drastic is going to happen."

★ WILL YOU HELP?—Here's a chance for Pottstown to open its generous heart to a down-and-out family. It's a chance to begin the holiday season with the right spirit. Of course, the family is depressed. It needs furniture. It has NOTHING. It needs a stove and beds and chairs and linens. Most of all, it needs a house in Pottstown or close to a busline. The man of the house is working steadily. He must find a place to live near his work. Do you know of a four or five room house he can rent? Have you furniture you can let them have? Phone All Around the Town today. Your gifts will be picked up. This column has investigated the family and finds it worthy of charity. Possibly Pottstown can find these persons a home for Thanksgiving.

YOUR HEALTH

By HERMAN N. BUNDSEN, M. D.

PROSTATE TROUBLE, a common complaint of men getting along in years, is one of the prices many men have to pay for progress. As better medical care and living conditions add years to our lives, more people are reaching old age with its special problems and diseases.

Fortunately, the treatment of the prostate by surgery has kept pace. The proper operation, performed in time, will give relief safely.

Many older men suffer from prostate trouble for years while neither they nor their family are aware that anything is wrong which needs treatment. Their appetite is bad, and they tend to be drowsy, forgetful and irritable. They have difficulty urinating, especially at night.

Aging and the mental disturbances that go with it are often blamed for this state of affairs. Actually the elderly man may be the victim of a prostate trouble which can be helped.

The prostate is a gland in men that surrounds the duct leading from the urinary bladder. During early life its function is to help in reproduction. In older age, this function ceases, and the gland tends to grow in size, sometimes far beyond normal. It often grows in such a way that it blocks the flow of urine from the bladder, acting much like a dam.

Nearly all men past the age of fifty have some prostate enlargement. Some of these men may complain of frequent urination, but the urine stream is slow, with reduced size and force. The danger of this condition is that the urine may dam up and injure the bladder and kidneys, causing poisons to be retained in the blood.

There are many ways to treat prostate trouble. With little risk, the modern surgeon can remove the gland, giving the elderly man much relief.

If the patient is in good surgical condition, the prostate can be removed through an incision in the abdomen. In certain cases where the risk is too great, this operation may be performed with an instrument that is inserted into the bladder. However, if a person waits until his prostate trouble has complications, he makes a successful operation all the more difficult.

Medicines are of little help in reducing the size of the prostate and should be used only when surgery is not very promising. Such cases are very rare. Proper preventive measures, however, may be of value in avoiding prostate enlargement.

Today, the older man need not suffer from a prostate disturbance as he once did, for with modern preventive methods carried out by the physician, and surgery when required, the difficulties of this disorder can be obviated.

By EDITH GWYNN

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 8—Yesterday Keith Andes did dotted-line stuff to star in the Bway musical "Maggie," based on "What Every Woman Knows."

Alan Ladd

He gets a six months leave of absence from R.K.O. and goes to N. Y. end of the year after finishing "Split Second." The show producers are trying to get Mary Martin for Keith's vis-a-vis, and also the one and only Ella Fitzgerald. Old timer Irene Bordoni will play Andes' aunt . . .

The Jane Wyman-Fredde Karger marriage should work out just fine. Not only will she know where he spends his evenings, but she'll probably "be along." Freddie and his great crew make dance music at most of the good parties around here—and Jane makes the parties! Incidentally, the Wyman's former mates include Ronald Reagan AND Merle Futterman.

ALAN LADD soon starts his second picture in Europe. It's "The White South" to be filmed in Munich, Germany. (Title means south Antarctic). . . . Spotted Kay Spreckles publishing with Frank Ryan; ditto Jack Reynolds (ex of Marjorie Reynolds) with Elaine White, the Spike Joneses with Travis Kleefield, the rich kid who used to deliver on a bicycle for a Beverly Hills drugstore. . . . Janet Leigh and Tony Curtis fly East tomorrow for fun plus two benefits. . . . Hoagy Carmichael and Harold Adamson have done seven new songs for "Gents Prefer Blondes" in which both Jane Russell and Marilyn Monroe raise their voices. . . . Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis get back from another Box-office busting tour next week to prep their golfing epic, "The Caddy" . . . Many amusing yarns are told of Ava Gardner—her life and loves. But Mickey Rooney could tell you the funniest of all, if he WOULD! (Happened on their honeymoon, enroute to Monterey.)

MARIE BLANCHARD who used to date Bentley Ryan, is now going places with his ex-partner, Greg Bautzer. Marie gets her best career break to date in "The Prince of Baghdad" with Vic Mature and Jim Arness . . . Lana Turner's second husband, Steve Crane has invested in a Beverly Hills restaurant, The Tropics. Now re-decorating to re-open same in two months. . . . It will be a shame if innocent and ambitious Jill Hollingsworth has to pay and pay for that theft of her mother's. Now the time for some producer to sign Jill and make her determination to make full restitution easier.

GOP Is Optimistic About '54 Chances

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9 (AP)—Senate Republican campaign strategists already are looking ahead to 1954 and claiming they can increase their headline GOP majority in that year's elections.

The past Tuesday's results overturned the Democratic Senate majority and gave the Republicans control with a one-vote margin. The new lineup will be 48 Republicans, 47 Democrats and one Independent—Wayne Morse of Oregon.

Political history of the past three decades indicates that the "out" party nearly always makes gains in Congress in off-year elections.

This would seem to favor the Democrats in both Senate and House in 1954 and might mean they would regain control that year, if the past is any guide, since the GOP majorities are so slim in each branch.

But Senate Republicans point out that the mathematics of the voting for their branch in 1954 will heavily favor the GOP just as it did the Democrats this year—a disadvantage the Republicans overcame.

This 11-year-old home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis F. Saltzer, 19 West Sixth street, is up-to-date in having a complete living unit on the first floor. At the front of the house is a living room, 14 by 15 feet, with a brick fireplace. Behind it at right is a dining room with the bay window, and to the rear of that the kitchen. Across a small hallway are two large bedrooms and a bath. Upstairs are two more bedrooms and a second bath. In the backyard are five dogwood trees, an apple tree, evergreens and a big elm. The multi-shaded red brick house was built by Oscar C. Arndt. Saltzer is a machine operator US Axle company incorporated. That's Mrs. Saltzer by the front steps.

West Germany Says 'No' to Arab Demand

BONN, Germany, Nov. 9 (AP)—West Germany today rejected the Arab League's protests against Germany's agreement to pay Israel 715 million dollars as restitution for Jewish losses under Nazi persecution. The Germans refused to scrap the agreement.

Authoritative German government sources said here Bonn's ambassador to Cairo, Dr. Guenther Pawelke, handed a note this afternoon to Egypt's strong man, Gen. Mohamed Naguib, spokesman of the seven Arab League states.

The German note answered the drastic threat by Naguib two days ago, which told the Bonn government if it did not cancel the whole reparations agreement the Arab world might sever all economic ties with West Germany.

SOUTHAMPTON, Eng., Nov. 9 (AP)—The condition of Margot Fonteyn, Britain's foremost ballerina, was reported satisfactory today at Southampton Chest hospital.

Miss Fonteyn, 33, entered the hospital yesterday with what members of her ballet troupe termed "severe tonsillitis." She was placed in a ward for infectious cases, however, with visitors barred. The exact nature of her throat infection was not announced.

She became ill while appearing with the Sadler's Wells ballet company at the Southampton theater.

Philippines Senate Votes To Keep Arnault in Jail

MANILA, Nov. 9 (AP)—The Philippines Senate today rejected, 12-1, a new proposal to release Jean Arnault, French-born naturalized Filipino serving an indefinite prison term on a charge of contempt of the Senate.

It adopted instead a resolution to keep Arnault confined until he purges himself of the charge. Arnault has been in prison since July, 1950, for failure to account for $220,000 of $750,000 he received from former US Brig. Gen. Ernest H. Burt on a land option deal.

D. S. Gladki Is Reported New Head of Soviet State

MOSCOW, Nov. 9 (AP)—D. S. Gladki apparently has been chosen the new chief of the Communist party in the Moldavian Soviet Socialist republic, succeeding L. I. Brezhnev, the former chief.

Brezhnev was chosen one of the ten secretaries of the Central committee of the Communist party at the recent Moscow Congress and also an alternate member of the party's new Presidium, jobs necessitating his full time presence in Moscow.

The ancient Egyptians, Phoenicians and Persians began their year with the autumnal equinox (Sept. 21).

Today's issue of Pravda, in reporting on the Bolshevik revolution anniversary celebration Friday in Lishnev, Moldavia, noted that Gladki reviewed the parade and referred to him as chief party leader and secretary of the Moldavian party.

J. T. Bowers Dies After Heart Attack; Worked for County

J. Tyson Bowers, 50, of 342 Washington street, Royersford, Montgomery county courthouse employee, died suddenly of a heart attack Saturday morning.

He was stricken shortly before 10 o'clock in the home of his aunt, Mrs. Alice Bolognese, 520 Washington street, while visiting his mother, Mrs. Sallie Bowers, who lives with Mrs. Bolognese, her sister.

Collapsing to the floor when he became ill, he arose and sat upon a chair and asked that a physician be called. He expired before the physician arrived.

A lifelong local resident, he was born in Royersford, son of Mrs. Sallie and the late Milton Bowers. For a number of years he was employed at the Reburn Manufacturing company, but since July worked in the transcription office in the courthouse at Norris-town. He was a member of Royersford Church of the Brethren.

SURVIVING ARE his wife, El-mira (Roeller) Bowers; a son, Charles, and granddaughter, Kathleen; his mother and one brother, Perry T. Bowers, 765 Main street, Royersford. His brother was taken ill sometime during Friday night and was admitted to Phoenixville hospital via ambulance Saturday morning for observation.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in a funeral home at 367 Walnut street, with interment in Fern-wood cemetery.

Royersford Man Pays $200 Fine for Assault

Pleading guilty to an assault and battery charge, John Sikorski, 41, of Royersford, was placed on probation for six months and ordered to pay $200 and costs within four months, at Chester county court in West Chester.

The defendant admitted assaulting Amon D. Triebel, a Phoenixville insurance man.

WITZEL FINED

Francis Witzel, Linfield, was fined $10 and costs on a charge of drunk and disorderly conduct Saturday morning. He was given a hearing by Justice of the Peace John W. Hunsicker in borough hall, following his arrest Friday night by police on Main street.

+++ WOMEN'S ACTIVITIES +++

Betty Porter and LeRoy Miller Exchange Marriage Vows in Sassamansville Church

The Rev. Wilmer Mantz, pastor of Sassamansville Reformed church, performed the double ring nuptials which united Betty Porter and LeRoy Miller in marriage.

Miss Porter is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Porter, 76 South Charlotte street; Mr. Miller is the son of Katie Miller, 424 Seminary street, Pennsburg.

Helen Mest sang "Oh, Promise Me," "I Love You Truly" and the "Lord's Prayer" before the bride appeared in the palm and white chrysanthemum decorated church.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Porter approached the altar in a white gown of satin and tulle styled with a decollete embroidered neckline, princess style bodice and long satin sleeves tapered at the wrists.

Her bouffant tulle skirts over satin featured an embroidered braid trim.

The bride's fingertip veil cascaded from a matching cap of pleated lace over satin trimmed with orange blossoms. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, an carried a bouquet of pompons, lilies-of-the-valley, and two orchids.

Mrs. Harold Rickert was matron of honor for her sister. She chose a ballerina length gown of shrimp lace and tulle over taffeta featuring a halter bodice.

The triple tulle skirts had an inserted princess panel of lace. Mrs. Rickert wore a matching cloche of lace and tulle and carried bronze and brown pompons with emerald streamers.

Dressed in a light green taffeta gown with lace collar and lace-paneled skirt, the flower girl, Doris Derr, wore a matching half hat of lace and carried yellow chrysanthemums.

A brother of the groom, Earl Miller, was the best man; ushers were Oliver Kulp, brother-in-law of the groom, and Arthur Nomm-maker, an uncle of the bride. The bride's nephew, Thomas Rickert, carried the rings.

For the wedding and the afternoon reception in the Washington House, Bechtelsville, the bride's mother chose a blue dress with black velvet accessories and a pompon corsage; the mother of the groom was dressed in black with black accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller left for a honeymoon trip through the New England states, with the bride traveling in a gray suit, black velvet accessories and her bridal orchids. The couple's new address will be Gilbertville RD 1.

Guests attended the wedding from Allentown, York, Pennsburg and Pottstown.

It's Her Lucky Day

Are you the lucky shopper in today's ring? If it's you, then you've just won the $2.50 daily award given by the Pottstown Mercantile bureau for shopping in Santa Clausland. And all you do now is stop by The Mercury office, identify yourself, tell where you were shopping when the photograph was snapped and the award is yours.

Many more Mercury readers still have the opportunity to pick up some extra Christmas cash in Santa Clausland because The Mercury's photographer still is going through stores with his camera, shooting pictures for the many more lucky winners to come. So keep your eye peeled for your picture in the 'lucky' ring.

Mrs. H. J. Ash, Glen Moore RD 1, who lives near the scene of the crash said the force with which the utility pole was struck jarred a nearby transformer, sending a shower of sparks flying through the area.

THE LIONVILLE Fire company was summoned by residents to standby near wooded areas because of the fear that the flying sparks would ignite dry underbrush. Mrs. Ash also reported an electric power failure within a two-mile radius of the severed pole, which in some cases was not restored until early yesterday afternoon.

Jingling Money Is Sweet Music To Telephone Operator in Ring

Mae I. Fox, an operator at the Pottstown exchange of the Bell Telephone company, has been ringing numbers for other folks for two years.

Saturday morning her number came up! It was the jingle, jingle, jingle, jingle of money in the pocket! It was sweet music to her!

Miss Fox was hardly awake at 7:15 o'clock Saturday morning when her aunt, Mrs. E. S. Diemer, with whom she lives at 1330 Cherry street, shouted up the stairs:

"Come down quickly, Mae! You've won The Mercury prize!"

Miss Fox hurried down, and sure enough! There in the daily shoppers' picture, Miss Fox found her head ringed. That meant she was eligible for the Pottstown Mercantile bureau's $2.50 prize.

She claimed it quickly. She was in The Mercury before 8:30 o'clock, the earliest of the early birds to get the money prize.

MISS FOX won the award because she was shopping in Santa Clausland Friday night. The Mercury photographer snapped her picture with other shoppers in the

Pottstown Merchants Predict Bigger, Better TV Shows

Viewers Entertainment Tastes Decides What's to Come in Home From Nation's Largest Networks

Pottstown merchants predict bigger and better television entertainment. With better programs, some better sets, clearer sets, better reception.

The American public really has decided what's to come into its livingrooms over its TV during the 1953 season, when new sets will be on display in Pottstown stores.

At once the most discriminating, the most fickle and the most exacting entertainment audience, Americans still have to express an opinion on television.

The British public's reaction to television is scarcely comparable. Under government control, the BBC monopolizes the ether and offers a single program service.

The free system of American broadcasting, however, enables viewers in large cities to select a program from several competing services.

In NBC's metropolitan New York broadcasts, for example, will in one way or another resemble stage, movies and sound radio entertainment, but in many respects the program will be utterly different.

Television combines a number of techniques and practices that originated in the older fields of entertainment; but even in its brief career television has done more than borrow.

It is slowly but surely fusing some of the finest features of screen, stage and radio production into one art, besides adding a few of its own kinks. This is television as we shall know it.

One important job just completed by Thomas H. Hutchinson, director of NBC television production, is the balancing of items on a program menu. His projected programs indicate a complete up-set of traditional radio practice.

Music, by far and large the chief item offered to sound radio fans, becomes secondary in television.

At present about 60 percent of the total sound broadcasting time is taken up with music, popular and classical.

Television will cut this figure down to a mere 12 1/2 percent!

The chief items on NBC's television adaptations of stage plays, short stories, etc. Documentaries will embrace a wide variety of non-fictional programs based on events behind the news, adventures, explorations, discoveries, travelogues, etc.

At present about one and one-half percent of sound radio time is devoted to a coverage of sports events. Present indications are that television will increase this coverage, giving both the words-eye view and the birds-eye view of outdoor and indoor athletic contests.

The sight radio system also will devote an estimated 12 1/2 percent of its total time to news pickups. The telemobile unit and movie film recordings will be used alternately.

The above program menu is not based upon speculation but upon a careful survey which Noran E. Kersta, NBC's assistant television co-ordinator, has made.

Whether John Q. American Public will be willing to change his domestic habits for television is one question which perplexes the radio bosses. You cannot "see in" a television show while wandering all over the house, as in listening to a sound program. The hope is that John Q. will be willing to sacrifice his wanderlust for increased enjoyment.

The increased enjoyment will come from closer contact with many accomplished and talented personalities whom the public knows slightly. When such people appear in a living room and speak out, you will know them better.

Television Beckons, Sonia Henie Admits

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9 (AP)—Sonia Henie announced tonight that a financial pinch is forcing her to take her ice skating show off tour but she may put it before television audiences.

The dimpled skater, who starred in several motion pictures, has toured the country with her ice shows for several years. She said:

"Because of the prohibitive costs of playing in arenas with a limited capacity and with seat restrictions due to the Baltimore disaster of last season I have decided to discontinue my area type production for the time being."

Collapse of bleachers at one of her Baltimore performances the past year injured several persons and involved her in five and a half million dollars in damage suits. And many cities have required her to carry a million dollars in insurance against a similar disaster.

Miss Henie said that to keep most of her cast employed she may take advantage of television offers. She did not say what the offers were.

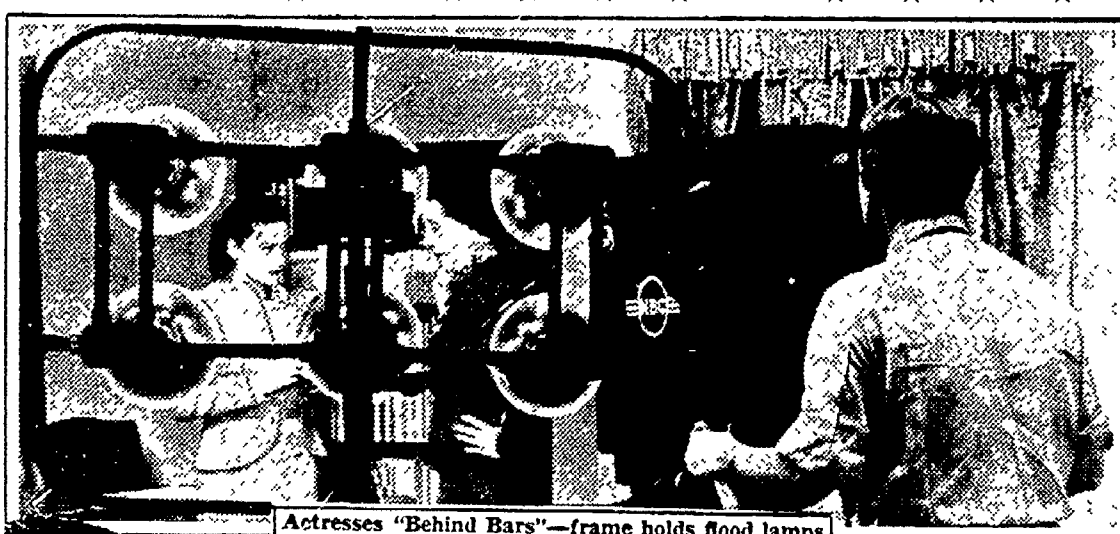

Such a shift has been contemplated, she added, since a successful engagement the past year in the Blaquita theater in Havana, Cuba.

Television is a new field to Miss Henie.

TOO LONG, HE SAYS

A noted television producer, Max Liebman, feels that a 39-week season is too long for TV variety programs. Liebman says he advocates a 13 weeks on and 13 weeks off to give both the cast and the viewers a breathing spell.

William Bendix, stage, screen, radio and television star, has formed his own company to produce and distribute films for TV.

Actresses "Behind Bars"—frame holds flood lamps

Mobile television—for outdoor sound-picture pickup

Television's setting is as strange and new to the public as its mechanics and equipment, as these photos show.

Murrow Will Present Year's Roundup on TV

A world roundup of news events will be presented on Jan. 1 by WCAU-TV featuring Edward R. Murrow, noted news analyst.

The program will be presented on New Year's Day following the Orange Bowl game and will include a year-end survey of world conditions by the nationally known newscaster.

Charles Sanford, music director for one of the top television shows, was honored recently by the American Federation of Musicians, Local 411, Bethlehem, as the man responsible for "the finest music on television today."

Television has played a big part in the recent national elections and was recently given credit for being responsible for the large vote turnout and registration this year.

J. Carroll Naish, who has portrayed every nationality on the screen, radio and television, has never played his own nationality. He is Irish.

BANDITS CAPTURED
WAYNESBURG, Nov. 9 (AP)—Three holdup men who robbed a grocery store near here of about $600 late yesterday were captured by State police early today at nearby Carlisle.

Bob Steele Makes Return In TV Western Movies

Many Western stars of yesterday are enjoying a comeback on television where their feature pictures are being reshowed.

Among the latest who are enjoying the new heyday is Bob Steele, top Western feature actor of 15 years ago.

Born in 1907, Steele is picking up new fans among today's cowboy-minded youngsters. His real name is Robert Bratbury.

Permits to operate eight new radio stations were awarded recently by the Federal Communications commission. It is expected that the commission may soon award operational right for more TV transmitters.

Ralph Bellamy has worn out three identical trench coats since launching his television crime thriller series.

Chicago Businessmen 'Sell' Street With TV

A group of Chicago businessmen have come up with something new in the field of community advertising.

Randall Cooper, president of the famous State Street council, says merchants on State street, often called the "Main street of the Midwest," keep things alive with competition.

Latest gimmick: The Council itself sponsors TV programs to encourage shoppers, Chicagoans and suburbanites now hear and see the phrase: "What do you want to buy, what do you want to pay, State street's got it every day."

Jerry Lester, television comedian, is filing suit in the New York Supreme court for royalties allegedly due him for his recordings.

Performers returning to Glamorville complained bitterly about the inadequacies of New York's TV facilities.

Most of these same people, Bob Hope, Jack Benny, Burns and Allen, Alan Young, Dinah Shore, Donald O'Connor, now do their shows in Hollywood. Red Skelton, Abbott and Costello and Frank Sinatra also televise from the coast. And they all still complain! Hope and Skelton were near collapse after their first show and O'Connor wasn't far from the same state. The only consolation for them now lies in the fact imbalances can pick them up at the studios and deliver them to their homes a few minutes away

IN ADDITION to the above-mentioned shows, the following now call Hollywood their TV home: Life With Linkletter, Mystery Theater, The Lone Ranger, Stu Erwin Show, Groucho Marx, Fireside Theater, Amos 'n' Andy, I Love Lucy (Lucille Ball), Gene Autry (The Range Rider), all on film.

Here Hollywood films are these, which go across the country via Vitaphone Recording (kinescope): The Jerry Colonna Show, The Ruggles, Space Patrol, The Bill Gwynn Show, Personal Appearance Thea-

Sing! You Mean Me! Roberla Did and Does And Now She's Star

By CELIA WEBSTER
(Central Press Writer)

ROBERTA QUINLAN, lovely star of television, was probably the most surprised girl in St. Louis the day she won a contest she had never intended to enter.

Roberla Englemer had studied the piano when she was very young and had chosen music as her major at Washington university.

In the Summer of 1937, a piano company was sponsoring a 15-minute radio broadcast in St. Louis. They ran a contest for a vocalist. The winner was to be featured on their show.

One of Roberla's closest friends was a singer and intended to enter the contest. Roberla agreed to accompany her at the piano. The girls practiced, anxiously awaiting the great day. It finally arrived and the two made their way to the studio.

THE AUDITIONS went on as scheduled. Roberla accompanying, her friend singing. Noticing the talented accompanist, the director asked her if she sang.

She answered, "no." (She admits now, "I never sang, even for my own amusement. When I was a little girl, I had a high voice, then I had a tonsil operation and my voice became low. I thought it was nothing so I never bothered.")

Upon the director's request to try, Roberla sat down at the piano and sang. No one was more surprised than she when she won the contest and was given the chance to begin her career as a vocalist.

THIS HAPPENSTANCE was only the stepping stone to the rise to stardom and fame Roberla was to experience in the ensuing years. It led first to becoming the featured vocalist with name bands, such as Will Osborn and Mitchell Ayres, and later to television for obvious reasons.

Roberta Quinlan has quite a career—by accident.

Vivacious Roberta's first encounter with the video cameras came to light in England. She had entertained the troops here and abroad during the war. It was during one of her USO shows at Gruman Aircraft on Long Island that she met Jack Quinlan, an executive, whom she later married.

The new medium was in its infancy when Roberta was given her own television show in Britain. Her role was that of vocalist and mistress of ceremonies with the background of a large orchestra. Roberta says, "I had all American musical arrangements sent over. The British musicians enjoyed using them for the show."

IN 1948, ROBERTA and her husband returned to the States. It was no time at all before NBC signed a contract with Roberla and she appeared on a carpet company's show three times a week.

TV authorities say that Roberla Quinlan is her sponsor's delight. They have been most pleased with her work and have realized a boost in their sales that has kept her in her network spot.

Through the eyes of television, the public can see and hear the attractive blonde whose nimble fingers might have made her a great pianist, but for the accident of discovering a sensuous voice which was stilled by her own idea that it wasn't worth using.

'Omnibus,' New TV Program, Gets Off to Star-Studded Start

NEW YORK, Nov. 9 (AP)—The Ford Foundation's new two-million-dollar weekly television program, "Omnibus," began this afternoon over the Columbia Broadcasting system network.

Billed as "a totally new kind of television program," the new series envisages the presentation of high quality drama, music, ballet and other arts as well as instructional material in varied fields.

The 90-minute opening program included the first dramatic works written especially for TV by Maxwell Anderson and William Saroyan.

The Anderson drama was "The Trial of Anne Boleyn," starring Rex Harrison and Lilli Palmer. Saroyan appeared as the narrator of his own drama, "The Bad Men."

Martyn Green appeared as Koko in excerpts from "The Mikado" with Ella Halmann as Kalisha and a chorus from the Gilbert and Sullivan company now appearing on Broadway.

THE FILM "WITCH DOCTOR," starring Jean Leon Destine, the Haitian dancer, had its first television showing. The film, based on voodoo themes, received awards at the Venice and Edinburgh film festivals.

Another film showed X-ray techniques.

Alistair Cooke, correspondent for the "Manchester Guardian" and a commentator for British Broadcasting Corporation, appearing as master of ceremonies.

Cooke told the TV audience that in the next 25 "Omnibus" shows they would see the Metropolitan opera, a ballet produced in Paris, notable scenes of history, and visual presentations of interesting fields of human endeavor.

Anderson has contracted to write three plays for the series and Saroyan will do six.

James Agee, co-author of the academy-award winning film, "The African Queen," has written, "Mr. Lincoln," a series of five plays being filmed for the show.

"Omnibus" also will include a series of five minute films on economics which will show glimpses of American industries.

TV Network Now Spans Nation And Now Nothing Goes Unseen

By C. E. BUTTERFIELD

NEW YORK, Nov. 9 (AP)—Network television, now expanding coast to coast, will embrace all but 11 of the country's 65 TV cities. In these, network communities are 94 of the 107 operating stations.

The extended service is made possible through a new micro-wave radio relay link between Omaha and San Francisco which in turn contacts an established micro-wave circuit to Los Angeles and Hollywood.

The new circuit is part of the system of the American Telephone and Telegraph Co.'s, hookup which is made up of coaxial cable as well as micro-wave units.

Besides the far west, it embraces many sections of the middle west, the east, the Atlantic seaboard and parts of the south.

While not all network cities are directly on one or the other circuit, programs are available to them through private relays.

These consist either of special micro-wave circuits of or direct pickup and retransmission of programs from a station fairly close by.

The new link has been under construction since 1948.

Besides television it is designed to carry telephone and other communications services.

In fact the telephone part was put under way in mid-August, ahead of TV. This link is made up of 55 relay stations, many of which utilize the high peaks of the Rocky mountains over which the circuit passes in going through Denver, without a TV station as yet, and through Salt Lake City.

Actually, from New York to San Francisco a total of 107 relay towers are required.

In addition to the micro-wave relay from New York, there also is a coaxial cable circuit to Chicago.

For coast to coast TV operation it is planned to use only the micro-wave pathway to insure full range signals.

At the start of TV service, the circuit, is to operate on a one-way basis, east to west.

Besides San Francisco, Los Angeles - Hollywood and Salt Lake City, Tulsa, Ft. Worth and City, it is possible for San Diego, Houston have one station each and Calif., to hook on through a direct Dallas and San Antonio have two pickup from Los Angeles.

These cities have 13 stations, divided San Francisco three, Los Angeles seven, Salt Lake City two and San Diego one.

The 11 TV cities having a total of 13 stations, which will not be a part of the network until considerably later, are in the far south, the southwest and the Pacific northwest.

Miami and New Orleans with one station each are up for addition later. In 1953 it is expected service will be available to Oklahoma and Texas, where Oklahoma years old.

West Pottsgrove Takes Little Four Lead With 26-18 Victory Over Collegeville

West Pottsgrove roared from behind in the second half to defeat Collegeville-Trappe, Saturday afternoon, 26-18, and gained first place in the Perk league's Little Four.

The Falcons of Coach Charlie Kasperovitz were four points down at the intermission but two touchdowns passed by Dale Neiman in the third period gave them their second win in four starts.

For Collegeville it was the fifth loss of the season against a pair of ties.

Paul Strzelecki, who compiled 144 net yards in 24 carries, scored two of the Falcons' touchdowns, one on a 15 yard run in the second period, and the other and game winning tally, in the third period on a 24-yard pass from Neiman.

But high scoring honors went to Falcon end, Leroy Carpenter with a pair of TDs and two extra points. Both of Carpenter's tallies came on passes from Neiman.

Of the 10 passes Neiman threw, he completed only three but all were for touchdowns. The first came in the opening period when he reached Carpenter with an 18-yard scoring aerial. Carpenter added the point with a conversion.

The Colonels fought back by driving down the field to the four where Jerry Hefelinger went off tackle for six points.

West Pottsgrove widened its lead to 14-6 in the second period when Strzelecki capped a drive with a 15-yard off tackle slant. Carpenter ran this time for the extra point.

Quarterback Fran McManus connected with Jerry Hefelinger a few plays later for Collegeville's second touchdown. It was a pass play that covered 54 yards.

Just before the half ended, Jim Hefelinger picked up a loose ball and raced 80 yards for a TD to send the Colts out in front 18-14. All three of the losers' extra point kicks were blocked.

With Strzelecki chewing off sizable hunks of yardage, in the third period, the Falcons moved down to the Colts' 24. At this point Neiman completed his second pass of the day good for a touchdown to Strzelecki. Collegeville blocked the extra kick.

Making sure of the victory, Neiman again threw a scoring pass in the third quarter, this one to Carpenter for 20 yards. Again the point was blocked.

Bill Yeagle was the Colts' top runner with a net gain of 27 yards on nine carries. The hard hitting Falcon forward wall bottled up all other Colonel runners.

Behind Strzelecki in the running department for WP was Neiman with 33 yards gained in 11 attempts, and Whitey Gaugler, 23, on seven carries.

The Little Four title now hinges on the outcome of the West Pottsgrove-Norco game next Saturday.

An Unhappy Familiar Scene

This is one of the many times during the Pottstown-Coatesville game Saturday afternoon, that Trojan back Howie Bedell was stopped for no gain. Moving in to make the tackle is Cy Wilson, Red Raider linebacker who gave Blue and White runners fits all afternoon. Center Jack Babel, No. 74 arrives a bit too late to help teammate Bedell, and another Trojan, Jim Kirk, No. 28 can be seen to the center rear. Other Coatesville players are Pat Bradley, No. 15, who later blocked the punt that set up the winning touchdown; Jack McCarter, No. 21, who earlier blocked a punt; and Dick Young, No. 10. Coatesville won, 13-0.

Trojans Lose to Coatesville, 13-0

By ED TAGGERT

The Pottstown Trojans found a pass defense Saturday afternoon, but lost a 13-0 heart-breaker to Coatesville, on a couple of fourth-quarter offensive lapses.

For more than three quarters Pottstown battled the burly Red Raiders on even terms before the sparse Franklin field crowd. But with five minutes remaining, the hard-charging Coatesville line broke through to block a punt deep in Trojan territory.

In one play Coatesville scored and only three plays later intercepted a PHS pass for a second touchdown.

The victory was the second in Ches-Mont league play for the Raiders and moved them into a tie with Phoenixville—a 27-0 loser to Bridgeport Saturday—for second place. The Trojans dropped to sixth place and were mathematically eliminated from championship contention.

The much sought-after pass defense that had caused Coach Heeb Meyers and his crew so much misery in recent games, finally functioned to the finest degree, but it wasn't enough.

The Red Raiders' vaunted air attack was stopped cold by five Trojan interceptions, three by Bill Kerr, a bright star on defense. The visitors' ground attack was also stymied by a stiff Trojan forward wall, but Coatesville was equally tough on defense and the fans were talking of a 0-0 tie.

Sophomore Josh Sovo was back to punt for the ninth time as the clock showed little more than five minutes to play. Earlier in the game Raider erably by Kerr. The little red-head made two pass interceptions that sent him higher in the air than seems possible for a boy 5'6".

His first interception came on the third play of the game and gave Pottstown its only scoring chance. Zazo tried a jump pass that Kerr moved in on at the Coatesville 19. He carried it back to the 11 before being stopped.

Two line plays gained nothing, but a Kirk pass that was blocked was snared by Ron Downie for a three yard gain. On fourth down George Smith tried a field goal from the 15, but it was short and Zazo ran it out to the 37 before Milt Wensel dragged him down.

Just before the first half ended Paul Stofko intercepted a Raider pass that slipped off Al Bodulus' fingers, and returned it 40 yards to the Coatesville 26. Howie Bedell completed a pass to Steve Chernesky on the 19 as the intermission was called.

IT WAS a sad day for the Pottstown runners. Bedell who excelled the previous week, was limited to a net gain of one yard in 14 carries. Right half Jack Bechtel had the most success, churning out 30 yards in 10 tries.

The ball bounced over to the sideline and out on the one. Quarterback Mickey Zazo squeezed over for the six points on the first play. End Cy Wilson's kick for the extra point was wide.

TRYING to take to the air in a last-ditch comeback Trojan quarterback Jim Kirk tried his usually successful "hesitation" pass out into the right flat. But this time Zazo intercepted on the Trojans' 22 yard line and scampered the distance for another touchdown. Wilson's kick was good and the scoring for the afternoon was completed within a period of one minute.

The rest of the day was spent by both teams grinding out short yardage. A pair of 200-pound operators, Wilson and tackle Tom Toney treated Trojan runners in very rough fashion.

Wilson was probably as good a line backer as Franklin field followers have seen this season. But his efficiency as a pass catcher was decreased consid-

Making Like the Doaker

Hill school's Texas grown halfback, Duff Bigger breaks free for a gain as Alex Butler, No. 14, applies a block to a Lawrenceville player Saturday at Dell field. Lawrenceville completed its season undefeated with a 32-0 win. Other Hill players are Ron Ference, No. 29, and Tony Williams, No. 62.

Lawrenceville Beats Hill 32-0 For Undefeated Season

For the second time in three years, Lawrenceville academy's grid clique realized two highly desirable aims with one sweep stroke: the Blue even got close to the one-year line, and marked up an unbeaten season. There the heavier Lauren-here Saturday, in taking the Blue-tan line stood up to its full height over its knee in the traditional campaign closer.

The Crimson turned the trick also in 1950 when Don Kastilahn led it to a 14-0 cake-topping.

Saturday, quarterback Joe Mark made his, by scoring twice, passing for another, and setting up still another by way of proving the invader's most dangerous offensive medium via his quick shots off guard and optional run-pass plays. Lawrenceville had a 26-0 lead before the Blue even got close. Late in the third period, the Blues trotted down to the one-year line, crossed off The Hill school, 32-0, using up five first downs over the stretch. ## QUENTIN REYNOLDS ple, their courage and faith—the intangibles." The Israelis defeated the Arabs, he added, "because of the strength of their intangibles, their faith."

He said that when he expressed surprise to Chaim Weizmann, Israel's president, who died yesterday, over Israel's victory despite the obsolescence of its weapons, Weizmann drew a Bible from a desk drawer and told Reynolds:

"Our secret weapon was this. As long as we believe in this book we'll always win."

AFTER LAUDING Tel Aviv, Israel, as a "wonderful town" and stating, "I love it better than any city in Europe," the correspondent spoke briefly of Jerusalem, which "has had blood on her face for 5000 years."

He said, "No old Jews go to Zion to die anymore. It's the young Jews who go there to live."

He said Israel keeps constant watch on the Arabs in and around it in fear the "second round" of the Jewish-Arab war will be renewed at any moment.

"The dream of a united Zion is only four years old," Reynolds said, "but the tough thing is to keep the young dream alive. You're being asked to keep it alive."

"It is surrounded by five predatory Arab nations. Help keep it alive now. It won't need you in three or four years. It'll walk on its own two feet then."

Reynolds was introduced by Leon J. Levitz, who with Sidney Pollock is co-chairman of the Pottstown UJA. The local goal this year is $87,150.

EARLIER, LEVITZ told those at the campaign opening dinner, "We here in Pottstown have played a great part in the national and international campaign."

Since 1948, local Jews have contributed $206,886 to the UJA. The past year they topped their $60,000 quota by $484.

WALLACE WEIDENMOYER, Pottstown RD 4, was travelling east on the highway and began making a left turn into the driveway at Kemp's store when his auto was hit by another driven by Alvin Williams, 710 Mintzer street.

Williams, who was heading west on Route 422 at the time, said he swerved left to avoid hitting Weidenmoyer's vehicle but nevertheless struck it with his right front fender.

The right rear fender, rear bumper and left tail light of Weidenmoyer's car were damaged, while the right front fender of Williams' vehicle was badly torn.

Harry G. Chrusch, Lower Pottsgrove police chief, investigated both accidents.

said "We are recognized as one of the greatest groups in the campaign."

Mrs. Charles Gultano was presented a certificate from the UJA for "self-sacrificing distinguishing service in support of the development of Israel."

Frank Anderson, chairman of the local UJA Christian committee, received a similar certificate.

MRS. SYLVIA BRESSLER, 1931 chairman of the women's committee, and Mrs. Lillian Leblang, chairman of the women's pledges committee the same year, received inscribed pens for themselves and their committee members.

Stanley Babin, an Israeli now studying at the Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia, entertained the diners immediately after dinner with Chopin compositions on the piano. He also played after the awards presentations.

Anniversaries

From our humble start to our present large staff we've sincerely tried to serve you faithfully. We have kept modern and up-to-date with real estate trends and have followed strictly the Code of Ethics of the Realtors, being one of the few members of this organization in this area. The latest in real estate merchandising ideas and methods have been incorporated in our service. Most important of all, though, is that we've never lost sight of the fact that you, the public, remains our greatest asset.

Our complete real estate facilities are available to you.
... feel free to call the Moore office or any of our bonded representatives.

Draft Official's Wife Injured in Collision

Mrs. Mary Longaker, 61, of 208 York street, suffered an arm bruise when a car operated by her husband collided with another vehicle Friday night on Ridge pike, about 100 yards west of Cross Keys road, Lower Providence township.

She told township police, investigating the mishap, that she would have the injury treated by her family physician.

R. Ross Longaker, 64, chief clerk of Pottstown Local Draft board 110, driver of the car, said he was making a right turn when his right front wheel hit the left side of the automobile driven by Paul Newrock, of Monaca station, Berks county.

Damage to both cars was estimated at $700.

HUNTERS HOPE —

ported back from a Potter county junket Saturday night with empty shells and tired feet. Their game bags were bare.

William E. Slaby, Grosstown road, Stove, led the quartet to Cross Forks, Potter county, the heart of the ruffed grouse country and the home of the wild turkey.

Joining the party were William P. Slaby, Grosstown road, Joseph Frederick, Chestnut street and Stephen Slaby, Fairview and Rice streets, Stove.

A Trappe hunter, John Minnick, who has been languishing at the bit since announcement of the ban, checked the lawn and field around his house last night to determine the affect of a light sprinkle.

Minnick is readying his car and traveling bag for a jaunt westward into one of the 16 counties where the ban was lifted, unless the governor acts in the next several days.

bly and to three classes with their sons.

They were present at noon for the dedication of the newly renovated J. Frank Patterson Memorial wing of the school and were in the stands after lunch at the football game with Lawrenceville school.

Edward T. Hall, headmaster, was host after the game for the visitors at 4:30 p. m. tea at his house.

THE VISITORS and their sons went to dinner at 6:10 p. m., to chapel services immediately afterward and then separated at 7:45 o'clock when the parents went to the library for a conference with the masters.

Delivering short talks about the school and its program were the headmaster, Ralph C. Johnson, director of studies; and Walter B. Levering, president of the alumni association.

Saturday night at 9 o'clock an informal reception was held in the library for guests and faculty.

The weekend program came to an end yesterday morning after morning chapel services.

2 Drivers in Scrap After Autos Scrape

Two scraped fenders caused friction between two motorists last night at South and Evans streets.

George J. Koval, 371 South street, and Joseph Bwinchick, Shamokin, Northumberland county, agreed that the left rear fenders of their cars rubbed together but each told a slightly different version of the mishap to police.

Koval said he was traveling north on Evans street and made a left turn onto South street when Bwinchick's car hit his.

Bwinchick said he was driving east on South street when Koval's car turned in front of his and the two vehicles rubbed fenders.

Boy, Bound, Gagged, Called Likely Suicide

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 9 (AP)—Police toxicologists worked today to pin down the cause of death of a 17-year-old boy whose body was found bound and gagged in a Trenton park yesterday.

Deputy Police Chief James D. Louie called the death "probable suicide," and said the vital organs were removed to a police laboratory to determine "what poison the boy evidently took."

The victim was Harry F. Trauger. Police could not explain why the youth, if the police suicide theory is borne out, should have tried to make it appear that someone else had tied him up and gagged him.

His father, Harry W. Trauger, said he couldn't conceive of his son committing suicide. "As far as I know he never had a moody day in his life," the heartbroken father told newsmen.

MAN KILLED, DOG UNHURT

BUTLER, Nov. 9 (AP)—Charles C. King, 65, of Palestine, Ohio, was killed and his 61-year-old wife, Mae, injured critically as he swerved his auto to avoid striking a dog on route 422 about 11 miles east of Butler yesterday. King's car collided with another machine, then over turned several times. The dog was not hit.

"Change of Life Made Me Scream at My Husband"

Writes Mrs. M. Uebelacker of Mt. Vernon, N. Y.

"Now I don't suffer from 'hot flashes' and nervousness—feel fine," she adds.

If you, too, are suffering from the irritable, restless feelings and hot flashes of change of life, listen to the tests by doctors Lydia Pinkham's Compound and Tablets gave relief of such functionally-caused distress in 63% and 80% (respectively) of the cases! Complete or striking relief!

Yes! Research has proved these medicines thoroughly modern in the relief they give from those nervous, "out of sorts" feelings of mid-life "change!"

Get Lydia Pinkham's Vegetable Compound or new Tablets with added iron! (Wonderful, too, for functional pains of monthly menstrual periods.)

It acts through sympathetic nervous system to relieve distress of "heat waves!"

Mrs. Alice Wentzel, 61, wife of Willis Wentzel, 403 North Charlotte street, died in Pottstown hospital at 2:10 o'clock this morning.

Mrs. Wentzel had been a patient there since the past February.

Services will be arranged today by a funeral home at 711 North Franklin street.

Officers to Be Elected By Sportsmen Sunday

Lower Pottsgrove Sportsmen's club will elect new officers to serve during 1953 at a special meeting Sunday. It was announced yesterday.

Paul Koren, president, reported the election meeting will take place at the club's quarters between 1 and 6 p. m.

Yesterday's short business session was attended by 40 members.

MAN KILLED, DOG UNHURT

BUTLER, Nov. 9 (AP)—Charles C. King, 65, of Palestine, Ohio, was killed and his 61-year-old wife, Mae, injured critically as he swerved his auto to avoid striking a dog on route 422 about 11 miles east of Butler yesterday. King's car collided with another machine, then over turned several times. The dog was not hit.

"Change of Life Made Me Scream at My Husband"

Writes Mrs. M. Uebelacker of Mt. Vernon, N. Y.

"Now I don't suffer from 'hot flashes' and nervousness—feel fine," she adds.

If you, too, are suffering from the irritable, restless feelings and hot flashes of change of life, listen to the tests by doctors Lydia Pinkham's Compound and Tablets gave relief of such functionally-caused distress in 63% and 80% (respectively) of the cases! Complete or striking relief!

Yes! Research has proved these medicines thoroughly modern in the relief they give from those nervous, "out of sorts" feelings of mid-life "change!"

Get Lydia Pinkham's Vegetable Compound or new Tablets with added iron! (Wonderful, too, for functional pains of monthly menstrual periods.)

It acts through sympathetic nervous system to relieve distress of "heat waves!"
